Where creativity meets business!

PIVOT is designed by Propel Youth Arts WA to build capacity among emerging artists and arts-workers in Western Australia, equipping them with the skills and knowledge to to make their creative careers tangible, practical, valuable, nourishing and ultimately sustainable.

This year's program includes four weeks of professional development for young people looking to grow their careers within the creative industries. From financial management to working with communities, there's something for everybody.

Arts Grant Funding Lab

Over two 2-hour workshops, presented by Propel Youth Arts WA in partnership with The Blue Room Theatre, the Arts Grant Funding Lab will provide 10 emerging artists and arts-workers with the opportunity to develop their own creative concepts into funding applications.

Participants across all artforms are welcome to apply with an idea in mind, whether that be a development, presentation, artist residency, or any other creative outcome that you are seeking funding for.

Expressions of interest close on Sunday 9 October at 11.59pm AWST. For further details, visit propel.org.au/pivot.

Coffee x Collab

Are you looking for like-minded creatives, opportunities to receive feedback and advice, special events, and a warm beverage to sip on?

Stay a while at the Coffee x Collab space in your free time between events on Saturdays!

Bring your lunch. All PIVOT participants are welcome.
