

WEEKLY PROGRAM

Week 1 // Warsame Hassan (Business Partner) will be starting off the program with a performance inspired by funky synth and rhythmic drumming. Joining him will be Solomon Amoabin, bringing his smooth and well thought out rhymes. After a quick Q&A with Sol and Warsame you will get a chance to make some beats of your own.

Week 2 // we turn our focus to music video production with the very talented Matt Sav & Rachael Karotkin from PAVLOVA. Directing and producing music videos from the likes of POND, Nicholas Allbrook, Tame Impala and San Sisco. They will be giving a presentation and a Q&A. We will also be making our own HUNDO-P jumper designs in the second half of the session .

Week 3 // super charged queens Debbie Downers will give a short performance showcasing their quick punchy post-punk wittiness. After their blazing performance they will going through how they write and perform music, followed by a Q&A and time to play some of thier instruments.

Week 4 // will be a focused on solo song writing, our guest Ben Witt will be doing a performance displaying his super silky smooth voice and guitar work. Ben will explain how he uses his loop station to produce such sweet music, going through and teaching some of his techniques.

Week 5 // good buddies Bec and Duncan are both amazing freelance photographers with experience in capturing the perfect portrait. After a talk on what they do best they will be showing us how to capture the coolest snap with a photo shoot.

Week 6 // we have R&B, neo soul and electronic legend Mei Swan bring down her buttery goodness. With a live performance then a workshop to understand how she creates her tunes.

Week 7 // will bring us to Perth's own trap lord Reef Prince, with a banger performance to start the class. Having a Q&A after the show, then a workshop to make some trill beats of your own.

Week 8 // Bringing us to this session is the power woman Rose KB. With her involvement Mummy's Plastic and WOMPP (Women of Music Production Perth). Rose will be going through what it takes to organise a show and help us with planning our end of program party.

Week 9 // Our last week will be an end of program event showcasing what we've all learned over the eight weeks
